

B612002

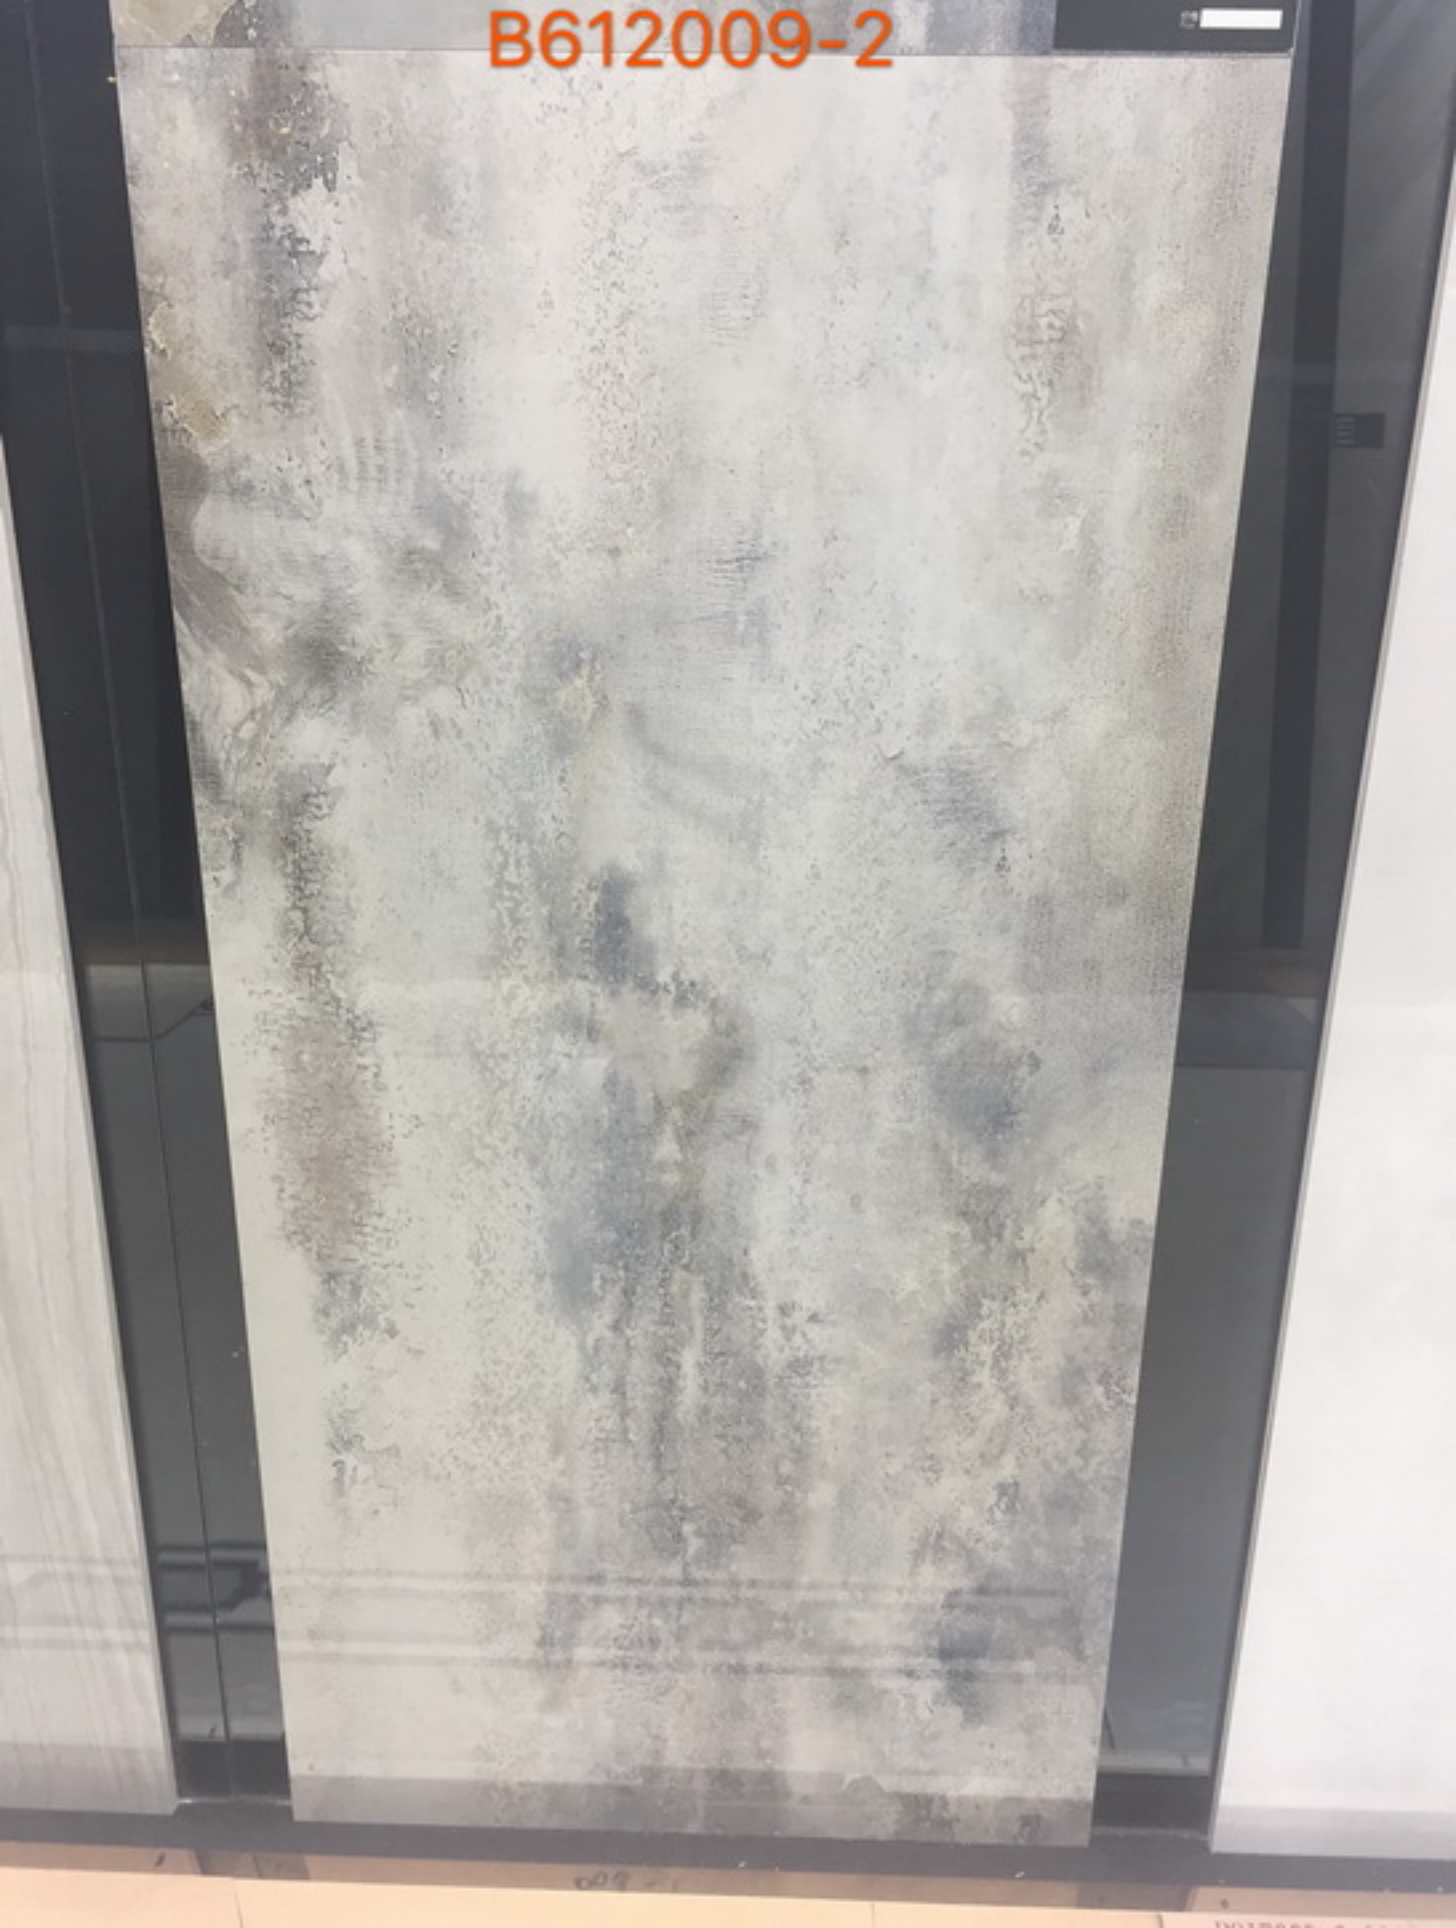

A large, rectangular slab of light-colored marble with prominent grey and white veining. The slab is oriented vertically and is set against a dark background. The text "B612002" is printed in red at the top center of the slab. The marble has a glossy finish, reflecting some light. The veining consists of irregular, flowing patterns of grey and white against the light background.

The image shows a large, vertical panel with a light-colored, wavy wood-grain pattern. The pattern consists of irregular, concentric, and somewhat chaotic lines, giving it a natural, organic appearance. The panel is set against a dark background, possibly a display case or a wall. At the top center of the panel, the alphanumeric code "B612012-5" is printed in a bold, red font. The overall appearance is that of a decorative or functional surface material, such as a veneer or a composite panel.
